“ Elmer & I were 1st cousins growing up in within hollering distance, which we often did while milking cows, more like a brother. When I came back from Army he was heading to Germany to serve. He loved running bulldozers, he helped on Hwy 49 to 40. All to soon we became old men, we both raised a few head of cattle which often required us to help each other. Elmer would be on his 4 wheeler pushing some of my cows ahead of him that had gotten out. Elmer will be greatly missed & the holler will never be the same.

That holler sure holds lot of memories. Elmer always had a smile to share. A gentle soul that could always make you feel at welcome.
