“ Eric was always kind, understanding, and relatable to SO many different topics. I was his online gaming friend-- then we met in person. His personality was just as amazing in person as it was online. I always loved Eric's advise and input on everything i asked. My best memories with Eric are all abput music. His music recommendations and his musical taste are THE BEST. Every song he sent me, was always personal and always clicked with me and has had a positive affect on my life. Eric has been the truest person I've ever met online and in real life. His loss causes great sorrow. But his life created joy

“ Eric came to help me move from Springdale to Cave Springs. He got there and we were talking video games and I was like let’s get started moving. Well that was not the only thing starting to move... as Eric has one of my night stands, a cop car flies in and whips in the spot next to my moving truck. Officer gets out opens the back door and straps an M4 to his chest points at Eric and I and says yall need to go back inside. Eric just put the nightstand down right on the sidewalk held his finger up and sad yep!!! And walked back inside. Then the officer used my moving truck as cover... all I could think was use your cop car not my truck rental (I didn’t get the ins). So Eric and I sat and watched the police raid one of the neighbors townhomes. So I witnessed my first and only raid with Eric.

I’ll miss ya brother. God must have really needed you for you to leave us so fast. God speed and god bless.
