“ I will always think of Ernie with much fond respect. Few men possess the qualities of integrity, compassion, decency and honesty as he. His calm, patient poise made a difference in the mindset of those around him; every day. His quiet spirit was ever present, yet nothing escaped him. He took the time to get things right and make sure they were right for everyone. The thing about his being a man of few words, when he spoke it held substance and meaning. And EVERYONE listened. I learned a lot from him. And I believe the impact of memories fighting the good fight with him will continue to temper my perspective for the rest of my life. We laid him to rest today. I feel like we said farewell to our big brother. You'll be missed my friend.

“ Ernie was a good friend to me in School. I usually got along better with the boys than the girls, for some strange reason, but found great friends in them all. Ernie let me be me, unlike others who tried to get me to do things they knew was wrong. Not Ernie and I will sure miss this school chum and send prayers and and well wishes and Blessings to the family. He was a good guy, a great friend and he will be sorely missed.
