“ Ervin was a good neighbor. He was one of Richard's favorite friends. He was always willing to help out anyway he could. In spite of his poor eyesight, he could fix almost anything. He climbed our silo more than once to work on something that was broken. We shared lots of coffee and solved the problems of the world around our dining table with Ervin. Even though we tried to pay back the many favors he did for us on the farm, we could never quite catch up with him to make it come out even. He always had a smile and a story to tell. My prayers are with his family.

“ Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, and eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.

2 Corinthians 5:1

This is the hope given to all Christians by our Lord Jesus, that death is not the end but a new beginning, that life goes on forever in the house of the Lord. May these words grant those left behind peace and comfort knowing that Ervin Owen now waits for his loved ones to join him in the everlasting home that Jesus has made ready for us.
