“ Ethelle was my first friend when I came to Warren, Ohio in 1956. She was a good friend for years after. We shared so many laughs, good times and later an interest in Christian life. She was a unique gal....loved her.

Was so sorry to hear about Ethelle.... You both played such a large part in our lives as you allowed us to rent and then buy your home.... I will never forget the night we met and the call we could have the house which we lived in for 40 years until we moved to Andover... . Have told many the story and bless you for your decision at that time... Dale and I are praying for you and your family.... You and Ethelle are very special!!!!
