“ Sister Eula, although one of the eldest members of Heritage Missionary Baptist Church, always took time with the youngest. Her age was not expressed by what was on the outside but rather what was in her heart. And her heart spoke of Christian love and life.

“ I have very good memories of Aunt Eula from my early childhood up to my adult life. A very special time that comes to mind, was when I spent the summer with Aunt Eula, Uncle D.C., and Don out on the farm. I learned a lot about farm life, that has and always will stay with me. She will be missed very much and her memory will be with me always.

“ I was so blessed to have enjoyed the lovely times with Aunt Eula whenever we had occasion to visit with Don, Jackie, Nancy and Scott. What a sweet and wonderful lady she was.

“ *Aunt Eula and Uncle D.C. were two of the best people God gave us.
May you feel peace and gratitude that they were in our lives.
My heart and prayers are with you.*

*With love,
Glenda*
