“ If I had a quarter for every time you smiled at me I would be a wealthy woman. Whether it was walking into your house after I had come up that dusty dirt road to either play out in the barn or get Lisa, so we could walk on to hog eye, or to ask a question because June was on the party line talking to one of her friends lol it was sure that a walk to your house was much quicker! 😊 Or if it was 40 year later at Hobby Lobby! You always made me feel special! Your kindness always shined through your smile! It's too bad we wait until someone is gone to tell them home much they've enriched our lives! I'm richer for having known you, without all those quarters!! So, we're the lucky ones for having had you with us through our journey this long. Now your new journey is starting! You're now walking on streets of gold in a body that has no pain or sadness! That pure, genuine smile of yours will surely shine bright now, since it can't be tainted with any pain! Shine bright! Pass on a hello to all those we've all missed! You were a good and faithful servant!

May your memories & God's love bring you peace, comfort & strength at this difficult time. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal but LOVE leaves a memory no one can steal.
