“ *I grew up right up the road from Lyle and knew all of His Family well. Lyle was such a good Man. We hadn't seen each other in several years and about a yr. ago, I saw Him in Decatur, and He said, "Well Hello Patty" and we talked a little bit. I want you all to know that you have my deepest sympathy. It is hard to lose your Loved ones, I know. But Just hold on tight to all those dear memories and I pray God's blessings on all of you. “ Lyle was my cousin and we spent a lot of time growing up in the Assembly of God Church. But he was also my Cupid. How best friend in high school was Richard “Dick” Johnson. We were in study hall together one day when a new girl went by where we were sitting. He said “I’d like to go out with her “. I saw my chance. I had already decided (at 15) that I was going to marry Dick Johnson. So I said if you’ll get me a date with Dick, I’ll get you a date with her. He said okay and the rest is history! That was 60 happy years ago. So, thanks Lyle Austin, Richard and I love you very much. You are a special person.
