“ To the family of Floyd Freeman:

Cindy Boling sent prayer requests to me in the weeks preceding your loved ones death. She and I agreed in prayer for all of you. I'm saddened to learn of Floyd's passing, and yet happy for him in his "Graduation to Glory." There is no better place to be than in the very presence of Jesus. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."

My dad was 82 when he died, and Floyd's picture reminds me of my dad. Floyd is a very good looking man. I say "is" because he is very much alive, just in a different location.

I honor his service to our country. If I could, I would thank him in person. Guess that will have to wait until I reach Heaven myself.

Just know that Cindy and I continue to keep your family in prayer. I'm thankful she could be with you near the last. May the blessed peace and comfort of Jesus be yours at all times, even during the grieving times. As God's Word says, "We sorrow, but not as those who have no hope."

“ Ellen, you are in are thoughts at this very difficult time. Grandma spoke fondly of Uncle Floyd often and missed him very much. I know we always enjoyed his visits and his very "firm" slap on the back! I hope you will keep 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 in mind. Love Dawn

“ I became acquainted with Floyd when I was a Police Officer in Colcord back in the mid 80's. He told me he knew my mom and dad and the rest of the family from Rocky Ford and I was also acquainted with Lawrence Gibby and his wife. I just wanted to extend my condolences to you on this sad occasion. Jerry Freeman, my life long friend, made me aware that Floyd was in poor health not too long ago. Jerry and I started 1st grade together and we've been the best of friends ever since.
