“ I had the distinct pleasure of meeting Frances on several occasions. One particular time I had the opportunity and privilege to talk extensively with her about the goodness of our Heavenly Father while she spent some time with her daughter(my mom)Geraldine. Frances had an incredible passion for the things of God and for that I am truly grateful. After our talk, later that evening, I remember Frances knocking on my door warning me that I had better turn down the T.V. because she could not sleep(smile).

To Mom & my sisters Melissa, Melinda,& my brothers Merlin & Bruce. I encourage you to rejoice in Him knowing that all things work together for good to those that love the Lord and are the called according to His purpose. I also join with you in giving thanks for how mom took such EXCELLENT care of Frances each time she visited Texas.

Mom, I know this is a difficult time, but I also know that you know, "the joy of the Lord is your strength." (Nehemiah 8:10)We are told thru Solomon that for everything there is a season...even a season to weep and mourn but you must also know that although weeping may endure for a night, joy will come in the morning.

“Mrs. Bise, Melissa, Malinda, Bruce, Merlin and family-Ron and I are so very sorry for your loss. May your deep faith in Jesus Christ guide and comfort you through this difficult time-today and in the days to come. As we remember you in our prayers, we're reminded of the genuine-unconditional love you each share for Mother/Grandmother.

Over the years, we have loved hearing your treasured stories of the times you've shared with your Mother/Grandmother and Father/Grandfather. Ron and I speak often of how those cherished memories have become a big part of who you are today and will forever be in your heart.

Realizing miles and distance on this earth make a difference, we're reminded of the genuine love and adoration in your voice when you spoke of the joy you received with their every visit-the hours of quality time devoted to them. Especially in their Golden years, as God has so richly Blessed you, to enjoy what few people every truly come to know-the heart gift of how you so lovingly cared for their every need when they came to visit. And lastly, how you honored your Father/Grandfather's wishes of being there for your Mother/Grandmother, as you were-with each and every call.

We know your heart is heavy and your loss is great-just know you're in our thoughts and prayers. Take comfort in the assurance your beloved Mother/Grandmother is asleep in Jesus and envision the unimaginable homecoming with your Father/Grandfather.

Love in Christ,

Ron and Evelyn

“ Bill, Alta, Randy, Ron and family. So sorry to hear about your mom. There is a saying---Our loss here on earth is the Lord's gain in Heaven. Just think what a great reunion Leonard, Phillip and that wonderful funny Ross...I miss his laugh. My heart is with you all. She was truly loved. Through God's grace and the happy memories you have it will get you through your time of grief. May God Bless You All.....
