“ Louise,
You laughed at my jokes, encouraged my music, and hugged me when I needed it. You were always kind. You were a bright spot in so many lives.

Roy, Jim, Ralph, and Jack. She loved you guys more than words could express.

Shine on beautiful lady, you will be missed.

“ Even a brief glimpse of beautiful art can change your life. Louise, you illuminated the beauty of North West Arkansas with your openness, warmth and beauty. For that I thank you and will never forget you.

“ I miss you my dear friend...

We met on stage...and the stage will never be the same without you. Thank you for your support, your understanding, and teaching me to see the real beauty of the world...

I love you Louise.

“ I knew Louise thru my work where she helped myself and the staff with parts from O'Reillys',,, She always greeted me with a friendly smile and our conversations gravitated to much more than car parts,,,,mostly about cats,,, animals,,, life and love... I loved Louise's spirit as she always had a great smile, and would go out of her way to make you feel special. She will be greatly missed...
