

Freddie Lee Harp

August 8, 1930 - September 22, 2024

Freddie Lee Harp, 94, passed away at home on September 22, 2024. He was born in Underwood, Oklahoma, on August 8, 1930, to William Edgar Harp and Ollie Belle (Kelley) Harp.

Freddie was straightforward, yet kind and loving. He was a hard worker, and everything he put his hands to he did with all his might. Freddie was also a proud Army veteran who served his country in the Korean War.

Freddie was a homebody and enjoyed working on his farm, caring for his garden, and fishing. He was also a faithful Christian. And in the mornings, he could be found sitting on his back porch reading his Bible. But most of all, Freddie was a family man. He was very family-oriented and took pride in caring for his family.

Freddie was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, and friend whose memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who loved him.

He is preceded in death by his parents; loving wife of 58 years, Sylvia Mae Harp; brothers, Edgar Franklin Harp and Virgil Paul Harp; and sisters, Letha Belle Zerr and Ruby Evelyn Spohn.

He is survived by his daughters, Debby Webster and husband Bobby of Kansas, Oklahoma, and Kelsey Reed and husband Nelson of Gentry, Arkansas; son, Terry Harp and wife Betty of Kansas, Oklahoma; sister, Ella Mae Maloney of Sand Springs, Oklahoma; grandchildren, Sarina Carroll, James Webster, Zach Webster, Amber Wright, Tara Dale, Jesse Harp, Ariel Rios, Jordan Reed, Kobe Reed, Olivia Reed, and Boone Reed; and 14 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

“ I remember being at church and several of us were trying to figure out a way to get Freddy and Sylvia together and one night there was the perfect opportunity as we made sure he saw her safely home and from then on it was in God's hands and what a perfect couple - I n my books both Freddy and Paul were perfect gentleman I have always been proud to call them part of my family.
