“ My memory of my "Uncle Gene" is that he was a wonderful man, always had that sweet smile, when I would see him. and treated all of us nephews and nieces with respect. He was always interested in what was going on in our lives.. That was a special family trait with all of the Langley family. we love him and will miss that smile... Sending Love and Prayers for comfort to His Family... A Niece C. Ingram in Locust Grove, Ok.
