“ George and I traveled the back roads of much of Delaware Co. Okla. McDonald Co. Mo. and Benton Co. Ar. looking at various properties. George knew every one and all liked him. He was a good man a fair man a patient man and a generous man. A man many including myself shall miss. The families of Ross and Wilma have many reasons to be very proud of having had and now to have the Haley name. Jane and I will be thinking of the family. Al Dunagin

“ My memory of my brother-in-law George is one of happiness! He was a kind and generous brother to me. When I made the trip back to Arkansas several times he always provided me with transportation to travel around to other family members - the last time it was a BRIGHT RED CHEVEY TRUCK ! LOVED IT and LOVED HIM MUCH ! Happy he is now at PEACE with his heavenly father and with his much loved wife, Crystal Rae. He will be missed here very much!
