“ Dear Olive, we were so sorry to hear about your losing George. He was always so nice to us while we were buying your house, and welcomed us into your home when we paid the balance off. We remember taking you both out to dinner. That was such a memorable day for us, and we will never forget him.
Forever,
Don and Peggy

“ We express our sincere sympathy at George's passing; however, it is the time to remember George with fondness and to celebrate the long and useful life that he led. I have seen George infrequently for the past thirty years, but I remember him well from our visits to Minnesota when I was growing up - the games of whist, the new car every year, the jokes. He was an energetic man always wanting to be on the go. So it has been good that he was able to stay active until relatively recently.
