

George McDonald

June 26, 1928 - October 14, 2011

George Grant McDonald, 83 resident of Decatur, Arkansas, died October 14, 2011, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Born June 26, 1928, in Snohomish, Washington, he was the son of Carl M. McDonald and Bertie E. Roberts McDonald. He was a retired veteran of the U.S. Navy, serving during WW2 as an aircraft maintenance tech. He also worked for the 3M Corporation. He was a founding member of the Living Waters Ministries in Decatur, Arkansas. Survivors include his wife, Thelma Ann of the home; three sons, Michael G. McDonald of Decatur, Arkansas, Byron K. Smith of Exeter, Missouri, and Nickie L. Smith and wife Cheryl of Decatur, Arkansas; two daughters, Glenda McCully of Southwest City, Missouri, and Dolly Pool and husband, Ron of Decatur, Arkansas; two sisters, Priscilla Graham and Francis Angelo, both of Helena, Montana; fifteen grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, L.D. Smith; one daughter, Sharon Camile Person, and one granddaughter, Brandy Lyn Pool. Memorial Services will be held Wednesday, October 19, 2011 at 4:00 p.m. at the Living Waters Ministries in Decatur, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ Dear Family of George McDonald,
We will be Thinking of You All at this difficult time and as the Days Pass, May thy pains of Loneliness ~ ease with time. Knowing His ill health and any sufferings has passed and He is with the Lord. An may You find comfort in Knowing this and God be with You at this time. Holding on to All those Good Memories and Happy moments together. George was a Kind Gentlemen, Glad to of knowed him. He will be missed. May God give Ye Strength at this time. You will be in everyone's Thoughts and Prayers.
With much Sympathy and Loving Hugs, Twila & Johnny Frazer of OK.

Twila Frazer - September 19, 2012 at 11:24 AM