“ Our heartfelt condolences. I remember visiting John & Georgia at their home in Colcord with Carla when we took our kiddos swimming. She made us quite a dinner (first time I had cucumbers & onions). I remember having to put eye drops in Megan's eyes while she sat on the kitchen counter - guess she thought it was okay that I did it since I wore contacts. LOL. Thanks, Carla, for sharing your family so readily with the rest of us, and thanks to Georgia for sharing her home and her no-nonsense approach to life in general.

“ Dear Family,
Was so sadden to hear of your loss. I loved working with Georgia, she always pulled her share and we had lots of laughs. We also shared our passion of collecting raccoons and I still have the ones she gave me. May you all find comfort in knowing
she is in a better place and you will see her again.
May God comfort you during this most difficult of times.

“ It is so hard to believe Georgia is gone. We had many great times together as teenagers in high school and in our youth group in church. We all went our separate ways after high school and got married, had children, good times and bad we all had our memories of times together. Georgia was a great friend and I knew her to be a good Christian and I take great comfort in knowing she is living it up right now on streets of gold. Heaven has a new resident and I know she is having the time of her life. We can all rest knowing that those who live in the Lord never see each other for the last time. 2 Timothy 4:7-8 tells us "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award me on that day - and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing." I believe Georgia believed that and will look forward to seeing all her loved ones that are already there and the ones that will join her one day. I hope her family will take comfort in knowing that.

Thank you for your words, there is so much comfort knowing that. Me and her had lots of conversations of her new body and no more pain. She was ready. I will miss her deeply. She wasn't only my mom but my best friend. She lived a full life and died peacefully at home with love by her side. God is good!
