“ Hazel & Emma, So sorry about your mother. I didn't realize she was in a nursing home. I thought she lived at home in Gentry. I usually go in & check Wasson's site every once in a while but guess I haven't checked it in a while.
God bless you & your family,

“ One of the earliest and very fond memory I have of my Mother is watching her in flour up to her elbows making yeast rolls. She would put all of the ingredients into a large crock without measuring anything and then kneed the dough by hand. Everyone who ever tasted her bread will tell you that she really knew how to make those rolls. About 35 years ago I was going to visit my folks during Labor Day Weekend and stopped on the way to help a friend remove honey from several bee hives that he had. We extracted some of the honey and as I was leaving he insisted that I take a couple of quarts of it with me. I wasn't sure what I would do with that much honey and quickly decided that I would give a quart of it to my parents. Upon arriving at their house I could smell the fresh bread baking as soon as I got to the door. Talk about perfect timing....My Mother was removing two pans of fresh rolls from the oven just as I walked in with a quart of fresh honey. Their was a large group of the family present and most of the rolls and quite a bit of honey disappeared during the next 30 minutes.

“ The last time I saw my mother was May 19th she was sitting sewing quilt blocks I think it was so great we were able to find a casket with a wedding ring quilt as a liner.

“ Although I have not seen "Aunt Gladys" in many years, I have many wonderful memories of going to her home when I was a young girl and teenager. I always enjoyed my visits with her...we were never at a loss for words! I also remember the days "Uncle Harry" would always pinch my cheeks real hard (I was about 4 or 5 years old)...I wasn't too fond of it at the time, but now I look back on it with fond memories. Even though I didn't get to see Aunt Gladys often in the later years, it is sad simply to know she is no longer with us. But, it is happy to know we will see her again soon in our heavenly home!

I regret that I will be unable to attend the funeral service. My daughter, Allison, is graduating the 8th grade, and I must be here for her. I know Aunt Gladys would have wanted it no other way. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you all.

I am proud to be part of the Morgan/Ballenger family and look forward to seeing many of you in the future. May the Lord richly be with you and comfort you during this time is our prayer. --Marla and Jeff Connett, Allison and Brandon

“ I remember sitting in her kitchen at the table with a pan of buttons, with all my cousins in the summer, stringing buttons. All the wonderful things I will remember when I think of her. There are too many to list. She will be missed greatly.

“ Grandma told me once the early bird gets the worm. It was the first time I recall hearing that phrase. My parents and I had stayed over night and I heard her working in the kitchen just about sunrise. She always was an early riser during times I spent with her. I thought of this when I heard the news of her passing in the early morning hours on Friday. How ironic that Grandma who lived her life this way left this way. May God be with the family in their time of loss.

“ To all the children...Hazel, Vernon, Ray, Ermalee, Virginia and any I forgot...
I will never forget the wonderful times I had at your home in Gentry and the great meals I shared with your family on Sunday afternoons. When I see a "stock pond"...I can't believe we actually enjoyed playing around in that water!! I loved your Mother and I will pray for all of you in your loss...
Although she is not lost..just waiting for you in heaven.
Love to you all,
