“ Cody, we have only known each other for a short time, but it feels like much longer. From my family to yours, we are thinking about you all as you cope with the loss of your Dad. Although this is an incredibly sad time, and the sadness never goes away, in due time the memories will also provide happiness as you remember your dad and the wonderful times that have been shared over the years. I hope your happy memories are helping.

“ Glendon and I were friends and fellow basketball players in High School. I am thankful that I got to visit with Glendon at our last reunion in October. He shared with the group about his illness and how God had been with him the whole way. I am reminded of 2 Timothy 4: Glendon has fought the good fight, he has finished the race, he has kept the faith. Now he has received his crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge has awarded him on the day he left this earth. (I paraphrased a bit) You see, Glendon has just changed locations. We know where he is. I pray that God will comfort the family during this difficult time and bring to mind the good memories that you all have.
