

Gloria Ann Ruth McEnroe

August 29, 1934 - September 25, 2023

Gloria Ann McEnroe, born August 29, 1934, in St. Louis, Missouri, died at home in Siloam Springs on September 25, 2023. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Kenneth M. McEnroe, and, later, by her long-time companion, Robert Gray. She is survived by her daughters, Cathi Coleman (Bob), Dena Dickinson (Gary), and Jamie Henderson (Jackie), grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Gloria studied interior design at Washington University, and was an accomplished collector of antiques; however, she spent most of her life in service to others, primarily as a health-care and hospital volunteer, having attained her 10,000-hour pin as a hospital auxiliary, and serving as president of the Arkansas Hospital Auxiliary Association. She particularly enjoyed overseeing the Candy Strippers program at Siloam Springs Hospital for many years. Gloria was the author of several articles published in national, state, and local hospital publications, and was frequently a featured speaker at meetings of those organizations.

She spent many happy hours singing in the choir, serving on the Board of Trustees, and teaching and participating in Sunday School at the First United Methodist Church of Siloam Springs.

The family wishes to express our grateful appreciation to the ladies of Precious People Care Services, whose presence and skilled and loving care of our mother gave her—and us—happy times until the very end.

A memorial service will be held at 4:00 Friday, September 29th, at First Methodist Church, 325 E. Twin Springs, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Circle of Life Hospice, 201 NE Legacy Parkway, Bentonville, AR 72712, or to the charity of your choice.

“ I was lucky enough to be one of those Candy Striper's ... volunteering at age 14-16 under Gloria's supervision way back in 1982-1984. It started me on the trail to my lifelong Nursing career. She was a lovely distinguished lady. My condolences to her family.
