“ This really broke my heart! I am so sorry you're going through this, but it's only for a little while. you will see her again and she will be as beautiful as you remember. I don't think there's a pain as great as losing a child but you can get through it as long as you have faith in GOD! take care and know that there is someone who cares what you're going through. If you need to talk to someone please write, call or email me.
