“ Our deepest sympathies go out to Marvin and Gwen's extended family. She was one of the sweetest, most considerate people I've ever met. Her sense of humor was appreciated and I will treasure the small gifts she gave us, especially the bell to ring when I need to summon Billy. :) I just wish I had known her better. She was such a lovely person and my prayers go out to Marvin and her son. She loved you guys so much. The angels are doing cartwheels!

“ Gwen and I attended Southside Schools together from first through twelfth grades. She was an intelligent person, graduating first in the class. We were good friends throughout school but lost contact with one another after graduation. The last time I spoke with her was probably in 1966 or 1967.

I was so sorry to see an obituary for her in today's newspaper. My sympathy goes to all members of her family.
