“ A lot of my childhood memories growing up here in Siloam were those of the Stricklands who lived down the street from us. Helen was always there with cookies and kool-aid (anything to keep us outside and out from under her feet!)We alternated between her home and ours, playing cowboys. She and Mom used to sit out on a quilt and watch us. She was always smiling. Great memories Helen, Thanks for sharing your life with me. I loved you.
