“ I am so sorry for your lose. Henry was a very kind and gentle soul. We went to our senior year of high school together and he was always such a gentleman to me. Then his sister, Carol, married my brother, Bob Boling, and Henry became a member of our family. I know that there are many loved ones waiting for Henry in the great hereafter. Rest in peace and tranquility dear Henry. With love and prayers to Henry's family and friends.
