“ Howard was a joy to have in the class, always willing to help his fellow classmates if they were experiencing a difficulty. Thank you Howard for the wonderful memories you helped us create at Miami Senior High, Carol Dring Squitieri "52

“ As a classmate at Miami High, Howard and I played sax together in the Miami Senior High School "Million Dollar Band" under the remarkable direction of Al G. Wright (now of Purdue University fame). We also played together in a dance band called The Stardusters, under the leadership of classmate Allan Heard, now of Coral Gables, Fla. Good memories of our time at MHS

“ Dear Precious Friends - We continue to walk this road with you in much prayer - prayer that you will see God's great hand working around, in and through you even in your sorrow - that you will have a deep sense of His strong arms lovingly and tenderly carrying you as you grieve Howard's departure from earth and also as you celebrate with joy his being in your lives & his safe arrival in the Home God prepared for him when He redeemed and claimed Howard as His own so many years ago. We are richer for having had the blessing of knowing Howard and are looking forward to the day that we get to see him again. Until that time, may Christ's Presence be your sufficient strength for each day.

We love you,
Mel & Jan

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Macfarlan family, with these comforting words: "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." And the One seated on the throne said: "Look! I am making all things new." Also, he says: "Write, for these words are faithful and true." - Rev. 21:3-5. This is the hope of the resurrection. I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort the, Macfarlan family and all those who loved, Mr. Howard. Sincerely, Meryl
