“ Hunter was very special to me and my heart hurts for his loss. I can't imagine as a parent how you are coping. It saddens me I won't be seeing his little face light up when we meet in the halls at school anymore. Father, I pray special blessings for Hunter's family who have endured such a tragic loss. Only you Lord, can heal their broken hearts. I pray you comfort them and wrap your arms around them and breathe peace over them. I ask these things in Jesus name, Amen.

“ My Dearest Dewana and Kimmie and rest of family,
This is a time when one has no words appropriate. The lose is great. It is one of the greatest and I know that God will be there for you when no one else can be.
You are a great family and I so love you. And so does God. And only when we meet God will this make sense.
Hunter is in a better place--and we will join up with him when God calls us Home.
All of my prayers are with you and will be-forever--because this kind of lose is for a lifetime.
He was loved and you are loved. Darla Lakey

“ Hunter was a very special boy with a smile and a laugh that just made you have to laugh. He had the cutest giggle. I remember the time at my grandma's house in Gentry he wanted to brush my hair. He really fixed it alright. Hunter stayed the night with us one weekend and when we got up in the morning we went to the coffee shop for breakfast, he was such a little gentleman and thought that was so fun. Hunter will be missed dearly. There is now an emptiness in our hearts that can't be filled. God must of had plans for him. Hunter is now with his grandma in heaven. I know he is very happy where he is. God needs little angels too.
