“ Roy, Sandra, Debra, and Belinda: Marilyn and I extend our sympathies to you on your loss of Imogene, but we know she is finally released from the physical limitations of her earthly disease. She is enjoying life with her Savior now in a way that we can barely comprehend. I only met Imogene at Quail Ridge, but her sweet spirit even in the midst of the disease always left an impression on me, making me wish I'd had the opportunity to know her before Alzheimers affected her. May God bless you during this difficult time as you deal with the mixed feelings of sorrow and gladness. We will be praying His peace for you. Roy, thank you for your consistent example of love for your wife to the rest of us!

*I wanted to express my condolences to everyone in your family.
Your mother was a very sweet lady.
Sandra was my sister Kay's friend.
I would occasionally ride horses with a friend to your house to go swimming.
I know your Mother will be missed.*

“ Sandra and Mack and Family- My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time of loss. I admire all of you for being such a close and loving family, and I know that, even though your mom is in a better place, you will miss her every day and will be a great comfort to one another.

*May peace be with you.

“ I have great memories of how supportive Roy and Imogene were of the kids growing up in the Siloam Assembly. I remember seeing Imogene, always smiling and enjoying her family. Even the times when kids from the church would show up (probably unexpected) to swim in the creek behind their house she and Roy always made us feel welcome. It was because of people like Roy and Imogene that the kids in the Siloam Church were able to feel supported and loved by their church family.

“ Roy and Family,
I was so sorry to hear about Imogene's passing. You all are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I have such fond memories of her, Belinda I remember the times that she would drive us to piano lessons in Springdale and we would go to the Taste-Freeze for slushes afterwards. I also remember going and watching her groom the dogs. She was a very special lady and will be missed greatly. Lisa

“ Sandra,
Just wanted you to know that I am thinking about you and your family and praying for you during this difficult time. Losing a loved one and especially your mom is really hard! My mom passed away 18 years ago and I still miss her and wish at times that I could just talk with her. However, our moms are in a much better place and wouldn't come back to this earth if they could. It is wonderful knowing that they are with God and their loved ones that have gone on before. That still doesn't keep one from hurting and greaving. My heart goes out to you. Keep looking to God for your much needed strength and know that I truely care.
Sincerely,
Lou Ann

“ Belinda and family~

I am so sorry to here of your mom's passing. You know I always thought the world of her. She could very well be one of the sweetest ladies I have ever had the priviledge of knowing.

I hope your wonderful memories and God's love brings you through this very sad time.

You will all be in my prayers.
