“ Aunt Inez was my favorite aunt on my dad's side. She was always sweet, happy, and smiling; I don't recall her ever being upset (and of course if she was, it was probably because of her boys, not me or my 3 brothers!). Whenever we visited, there'd be music, a requirement for Bergthold get-togethers. Aunt Inez played the piano, and whoever was there would sing. As kids, we never gave thought to having to say "good-bye for now" to our aunts and uncles, or even our parents, but as we grow old ourselves, it happens. Thankfully we know we'll see Aunt Inez in heaven - she loved the Lord and loved to praise him!

“ Inez was a very special lady, touching our hearts, making us laugh. We'll always treasure the memory of her coming to our Bentonville home and playing the piano for our 90 year old Aunt Marcy. The room sparkled with joy and praise as Inez played song after song and Marcy clapped her hands exclaiming "more, more!"
