“ Edwin, Lisa, and extended families:

Iretha and Dale were introduced to me and I to them at Garland Assembly of God Church, Fayetteville, AR, 1968. Over the next fifty-one years our friendship grew strong with various interests and pursuits. Always respectful, music was plenteous, church necessary, serving the Lord Jesus was imperative, but food seemed to draw us together.

I was a transfer student from University of California at Riverside, to the U of A. I was invited to live with JW and Ava Walker my senior year. When JW and Ava traveled out of town, Iretha and Dale opened their kitchen and pantry to this starving student on numerous occasions. For Iretha June, everything had to pass near perfection. What a blessing! I remember Iretha's spaghetti and fried chicken could not have tasted better. Dale's insight to campus life was keen, humorous, and effectual. We remained solid friends maintaining, accountant / client relationship. Most important, we promoted the Kingdom of God in all that we pursued.

Their kindness, generous ways and warm memories I will always hold dear.

I pray that you cast your cares upon the Lord's Featherbed of Grace and are strengthened in His Truth and Mercy.

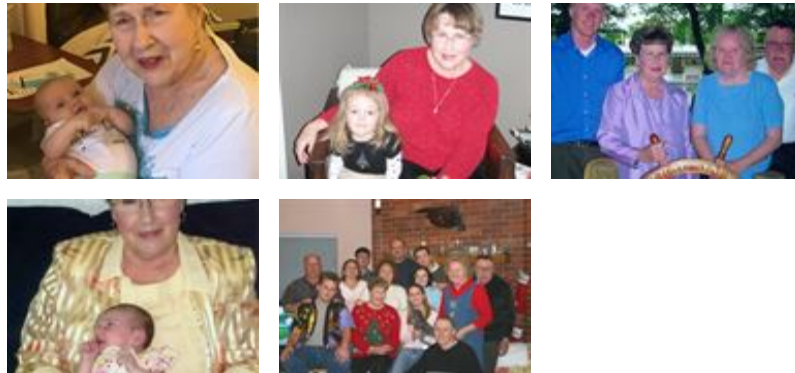

Blessings.
