“ I got aquatinted with JB in the 5th grade. He wanted to be an MP then, he would ride his bike at high speeds complete with sirene sound effects. He was always alot of fun. The last time we saw one another was at the 45th reunion. I reminded him of the name my Dad had for him, Jolly Bull ,we no more parted ways and I heard him introduce himself as Jolly Bull, saying it was his Indian name. He hadn't changed at all. You'll be missed.
