“ Well dad, I just have to say "Thanks" for everything; for your patience and your love. You taught me how to skip a rock and ride a bike and drive just to name a few things. You taught a lot of things probably without even knowing it, but I was watching you. One of the many things I love about you is that you loved the simple things in life and you loved people. Dad to me you were like steel, so strong and brave. Dad, thanks for being there when the wind stopped blowin, the sun stopped shinin, and the grass stopped growin. I love you so much Dad. “ Although we divorced recently, I had many wonderfull years with Jack. Even with the ups and downs over the past few years I always had a place in my heart for Jack. He was a wonderfull father to my son Andrew, and we shared many many good years together. I hope God will grant all of the family peace and their hearts will begin to heal. You will be missed Jack. I wrote a poem the day of the funeral that I would like to share with the family.

*Dedicated to Jack Garrett
1938 ~ 2011*

*Today's the day I say goodbye,
I have no tears left to cry.
My life feels strange, A missing piece,
A soul at rest, A life that ceased.
God calm the hearts that ache for him,
Help us resume our lives again.*

"Farewell my friend, until we meet again"

“ Jack was a very sweet quiet man. He had many talents such as sand blasting, raising chickens,marble and tile work, and a very good story teller. He loved children and could always make them smile. I am sure he will be missed by many. May god and jack watch over his family members here on earth and may they again be reunited in heaven.

“ I can remember when I first met Jack. He was dating my sister & I wasn't so sure of him. He seemed like he had an answer for everything, or thought he did. As I got to know him better I realized he was a smart man and a good man. Jack helped people when he could without complaint. I was glad that he married my sister and became my brother in law. I will cherrish the last couple of times I got to see him. Once when he showed me the place he was buying as we sat and drank coffee together. And the last time I got to see him was in November when we had coffee together again. I am sad that I didn't get to say good bye to him. To Andrew, Kevin, Rodney, and Shelia I am so sorry for your loss. I am praying that all of you find comfort from the loss of your Father. Rest in Peace my dear brother in law. He will be missed greatly.. Tammy Marie Hummel Strosahl
