“ I am very sad to hear of Jack's passing. I have a lot of very good and fun memories of the time I spent hanging out and listening to stories throughout my teenage years from Grandpa Jack. He lived an example of how to be a giving and good person that all young men should strive to live up to.

“ Dear Family Members,

A person cannot live in the Gentry community without knowing and being friends, at so many levels, with the Still family. I am no exception to that blessing.

My prayers go out to you all in this season of your loss. Jack was a good man and will be missed.

“ Tamara Still Coones (and family),

I know this is a hard one. Losing a beloved Grandfather is very difficult. You were blessed with a close family and as a result a lot of wonderful memories. There is a saying "God gives us memories so we can have roses in winter." God knows how special our loved ones are and how much we miss them when they leave us but He comforts us with those memories that remain to be our "winter roses". If you need anything, please call.
