“ I remember Jack for his kind, gentle, loving nature and his great sense of humor. He was a great Christian and one of the best men I've ever known. I love him for the devotion he showed to my sister, Patty, for being a wonderful husband, father, and grandpa to all of them. We all loved him. I don't know anyone who didn't. He was just a good man, the kind that will always be remembered with a smile and a good feeling inside. I'll miss you, Jackie. I know you are in Heaven and we will all see you again some day.

“ Years ago when I was about 13 years old I was hauling hay for Tiny Boyle. We were working close to Cherokee City. It was about 98 degrees and the humidity was about the same. Jack came by and visited with Tiny and me for a few minutes. When he left he asked if there was anything we needed. I laughingly stated that I wanted an big ice cold water melon. About an hour later Jack brought by the biggest water melon in a wash tub of ice. I don't know where he had to go to get it, but he found one somewhere. I don't think I ever saw him again after that but I have remembered his kindness all these years. I wasn't used to anyone giving me anything and that made a good impression on me. I pray that he will be rewarded in Heaven for all his kindness. Prayers for the family.

“ Jack was my brother-in-law. I remember back before he and Pat got married they came to the house at night one time on Halloween in costume . It was after dark and I just happened to look up and seen them out the window of the front door. Of course I did not recogonize them, and it scared me so bad :-) They both got the biggest kick out of that and I thought they would never stop laughing :-) Jack was a good man and we have all thought the world of him. Our love to my sister Pat, to Tammy, Tom and all the kiddo's. We Love them all! Signed, (Joann Holt) - Josie Brumbaugh.

“ Jack was an awesome brother-in-law. He loved to tease. He told me a big story about a genie in a little brass alladin lamp I bought at a flea market in Gentry. For a minute I believed him. He could out cook anyone and when I was a kid I loved to stay with Jack and my sister Pat. They spoiled me rotten. I Know he's busy now teasing someone up in Heaven and they are loving it too!
