“ I miss dinners at your Mom's house when she would make that chicken with noodle box dinner, blue box, no idea the name, at your house on Mill St. in Buffalo back in the 80's. I had my first kiss at your house. Kokomo was playing on the radio and I was 14. I would not be the same person that I am today if not for having you as a best friend. I am sorry I was not there for you in your last moments, but know that you have been with me all these years. I love you Jack. I hope to see you on the other side one day.
