

Jacob McNeal Garrett

April 16, 1996 - May 4, 2017

Jacob McNeal Garrett, aged 21, passed from this life on May 4, 2017. He was born April 16, 1996 in Tahlequah, Oklahoma to Steven F. and Anjanette (Angel) M. (Henry) Garrett.

Jacob had a gift for music, and was an especially talented songwriter. He had been a member of several bands in the Joplin and Kansas City areas and a frequent collaborator with other musicians. He was his most joyous when he played.

Jacob loved his friends and the scene, always putting the needs of others before his own. He loved to laugh and make others happy. His smile was contagious.

He graduated from Smithville High School in 2014, but had also attended Webb City, Mo. High school where he lettered in Swimming. At Smithville High School he was a member of the Lakeside Singers, but added his own brand of flash with his guitar.

At the time of his death, he was a member of the bands Clearviews and Aprilmist and his own solo project Spring Eyes.

Jacob is survived by his father and mother and two brothers, Joshua and Jackson, his grandparents John and Linda Henry of Siloam Springs and Nancy Garrett-Farrier of Stilwell, a number of aunts, uncles and cousins, his band mates and many musicians and friends across the Midwest.

There will be a graveside service 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, May 10, 2017 at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Jacob McNeal Garrett Memorial Fund, Platte Valley Bank, P.O. Box 251, Smithville, MO 64089.

“ Our prayers and Sympathy to you, Steve, Angel, Josh and Jackson. Our hearts are broken for you. We have such fun memories of your time in Stockton when the boys were little. Jacob had that cute ornery smile all the time. He was full of energy and always on go. He had lots of questions and always knew the answer before he asked.

We remember him visiting the neighbors one morning early when he escaped the house in only his diaper. He was a fun kid. Lots of fun memories. Sorry he is gone too young. Love Ron and Gail Gallaway

“ Sweet Jacob. You remind me so much of your dad when he was playing music. I love that you found a love for music and a knack for songwriting. I knew you the best when you were just a baby. I find it hard to believe that 20 years have passed since I first met you. I have great memories of you and your brothers (mostly of you and Josh because your family moved away not long after Jackson was born). I have memories of your nursery, that would later become my brother's room after you moved, and laying you down in your crib to sleep. The three of us had great times in the evenings when your parents would go out for a date night or when I would help in the church nursery. I got to see you the first few years after your family moved, but then I was off to college and you remembered me a little less each time we were both in Tahlequah. Your family is so precious to me, though, and while we've not kept up with one another with face-to-face visits, I've kept in touch with your parents and you and your brothers through your dad's blog/notes writing and pictures on the {sometimes} wonderful world of Facebook. I've loved watching you grow and hearing about what you're involved in. I wish I could have heard you play. I would have loved it.

Steve, Angel, Joshy, Jackson, how wonderful it must have been to have twenty-one years with such a talented and kind-hearted spirit, to know him intimately and to call him your family. If I could give you more time, I would. Oh, how I wish I could. I pray you would find comfort in a way that no one can explain, except to know it is Christ covering you. I'm grateful that you have a great network of support from people who love you, even if it's across the miles -- use us; tell us your hurts; tell us your memories. We will love you and pray for you; we will mourn with you, and when the time is right, we will rejoice with you.

“ I remember Jacob sharing his musical talent, along side his dad on several farmers market occasions. He laughed at my dumb jokes (probably just laughing at me;). Amazing musician and talent. Gone too soon.
