“ I remember Uncle Jake (Jacob) and others paying cards, cutting up and having a grand ol time, I will miss all his stories and laughter, He was always around when we were kids, I am just glad I got a chance to visit him before he was hospitalized...he was glad to see me, I could see it in his eyes. We had a short conversation, but a good one, I am glad we both got to say good bye the way we did, it ment alot to me. I will miss hium more than anyone will know. I love you Uncle Jake.

“ Doris,
So sorry for your loss. Jake was such a great person to take care of while I worked at the Maples. He was always joking around with the staff and made us all smile.
