

James Clyde Swint

March 26, 1933 - August 4, 2020

James Clyde Swint, 87 of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died on August 4, 2020 at Fayetteville Health and Rehab. He was born on March 26, 1933 in Sylacauga, Alabama, to Earl and Irene Swint. Clyde married June Ward on July 15, 1952 in Columbus, Mississippi. He was a member of First Baptist Church in Siloam Springs.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, June; son, Jeff; one sister, and one brother.

He is survived by his two daughters, Gail Walters and husband Greg of Siloam Springs, and Jill Haley and husband Kelly of Van Buren; six granddaughters, Ashley Salter, Courtney Bailess, Catlin Logsdon, Carly Swint, Kelsey Hightower, and Emily Ryan; nine great grandchildren; and a niece, Sheila Mullins.

The family will have a private graveside service. Burial will be at Oak Hill Cemetery in Siloam Springs. Memorial contributions may be made to Circle of Life Hospice, 901 Jones Road, Springdale, AR 72762.

Cemetery Details

Oak Hill Cemetery

2122 W. University St.
Siloam Springs, AR 72761

Tribute Wall

RW

“ Clyde was a terrific friend who loved his wife, family, church and our LORD. We all enjoyed the many stories Clyde would share but I enjoyed most about his work in his church community garden and the trips he organized to hear gospel music. Thank you for your friendship. Ron Wey

Ron Wey - August 08, 2020 at 05:07 PM

JA

“ Clyde was a wonderful person and great friend to my dad, Ralph Cloyd. June and Clyde were great Christians and we all will miss them both.

Judy Arbia - August 06, 2020 at 11:21 AM