

James Hess

February 18, 1919 - February 28, 2011

James Brice Hess, 92, of Colcord, Oklahoma, died February 28, 2011, at Siloam Springs Memorial Hospital, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Born February 18, 1919, in Adair County, Oklahoma, he was the son of James Hugh Hess and Maude Gertrude Welch Hess. He worked for Dow Chemical as a Plant Protection/Security Officer. He was an Army/Navy Veteran of World War II. On October 23, 1941, he married Lorene M. Myers in Jay, Oklahoma. James was of the Baptist faith. Survivors include his wife Lorene of the home; one daughter, Delores Jo Horvath and husband Bruce of Parkersburg, West Virginia; one son, David Hess and wife Helen Marie of Colcord, Oklahoma; five grandchildren, Amanda Marie Williams, Todd Alan Horvath, Patrick Gavin Horvath, Leigh Allison Bowling, and Jonathan David Hess; five great grandchildren, Josi Bryce Williams, Tripp Michael Williams, Betsy Matilyn Burnham, Zachary Brice Hess, and Alona Williamson; one brother, George Edward Hess of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and three sisters, Betty Joyce Smith of Claremore, Oklahoma, Jean Engler and Geneva Rush, of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Pallbearers will be Tom Hess, Jonathan Hess, Marcus Boling, Mark Reese, Darrell Mason and Amanda Williams. Graveside services will be 2:00 p.m. Saturday, March 5, 2011, at New Hope Cemetery, Chewey, Oklahoma, with Ronnie Bradshaw officiating. Visitation will be 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., Friday, March 4, 2011, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

“ James Hess

September 19, 2012 at 12:00 PM