“ Dear Family,

We know this is a most difficult moment for you all. We cannot fully understand why things happen as they do. Somehow, God will be glorified through it all. I pray each of you will be comforted by the Holy Spirit. May James' life serve to propel you forward in your living for Jesus.

If there is anything we can do to be of help please let us know. We love you all.

“ To his family. I am so sorry for your loss. James was a man of his word and he lived his life treating others with kindness and respect. James was always willing to help others in whatever way he could. He is a great example as to the way God instructs us to live our lives. May God wrap his arms around your family and bring you closer to him during this time.
