

James Rex

James Rex New, 75, of Oaks, Oklahoma, died March 26, 2012, at his home. He was born December 1, 1936, and was the son of Albert New and Ethel Hanson New. He was a dairy farmer. He moved to the community in 1976 from Kansas City, Kansas. His hobby was driving his horse and buggy and wagon in parades. He was of the Baptist faith. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother. Survivor includes two sons, James Rex New, Jr., and wife Jeanna of Kansas, Oklahoma, and Robert E. New and wife Josette of Sterling, Colorado; two daughters, Shirley Benlon and husband David of Kansas City, Kansas, and Dianna Wuertz and husband David of Forrest Grove, Oregon; eight grandchildren; and fifteen great grandchildren. No services are planned.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ James Rex

Karen Kirk McCollum - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM

NT

“ The Rex I will always remember was a happy laughing jolly man who would have given the shirt off his back for a friend any time they needed it. I wish him eternal peace and pray to the heavens that there are plenty of draft horses in heaven. I will miss him. My prayers go out to the his family and all his friends. Nick

Nick Tussinger - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM