“Jane will be having the greatest Christmas of all times. She will be missed by many. I remember working at Nickels Variety with her. She was the type of boss, everyone would like to work under. We had a lot of the same likes and I could probably fill a room with all the fabric, I bought from Henderson fabrics. She brought a smile to my face each time we would meet these last few years.

Praying for the family and knowing God is going to comfort each and everyone of you as you need.
