Lorri, You will continue to be in my prayers. I always enjoyed the visits to see your mother, especially when she was able to out of bed and move around a bit.

“ Dan and Lorri-

Your mom was a a unique mixture of many qualities - but the qualities I remember her for the most was that she was a woman of grace and faith. A lifetime of twists and turns, good times and bad, it surely would have crushed a woman of less noble character! I will always remember your mom's smile and her laughter. She loved as tough as she was tough to love. But when you get right down to it, she was her own and to know her was to certainly love her. With each passing day, we are one day closer to seeing her in the spirit once again!

She suffered physically in her last years here on earth and she is finally at peace. I'm sure if she could have spoken near the end, she would have said, "Oh man, THIS is TERRIBLE!" I am certain she is singing now this chorus, " Oh Lord my God, Heavenly Father...THIS is WONDERFUL!"

God Bless Janice Cristea.
