Janice “Chris” Christina McDonald, 79 year old resident of Decatur, Arkansas, died July 24, 2021. She was born May 9, 1942, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas to Floyd and Elizabeth Parmley.

Chris is survived by two daughters Tammy L. Howell-Long, of Gentry, Arkansas, and Christina L. Howell of Decatur, Arkansas; one granddaughter, Jennifer Nightingale, of Gentry, Arkansas; six great grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; two brothers, Bobby Parmley, of California, and Franky Parmley, of Arkansas; three sisters, Sharon Wood, of Gentry, Arkansas, Jeanny Castro, of Arvin, California, and Evalynn Hackley, of Supulpa, Oklahoma. Chris is preceded in death by her parents; four brothers, Floyd “Cowboy” Parmley, James Parmley, George “Joe” Parmley, Charles “Bo” Parmley; two sisters, Dolly Parmley, and Leila “Lee” Ennis; granddaughter Crystal Lynn Rogers.

Chris lived a majority of her life in Southern California and Florence, Oregon until returning to Arkansas ten years ago. She had an artistic talent of many things but most of her passion was in her oil paintings. She was kind and generous to everyone she met and loved by many. Her time was cut short with us and she will forever be missed and forever in our hearts. Until we meet again mom, rest in peace.

Psalm 73:26

My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
