“ Jared was one of my closest friends. I met Jared the first day I moved to Siloam and didn't know anyone and he was a friend from then and I was maybe 16 until now and I'm 48. I lived him and his brother's and mother and dad like my own family. I was there the day he met the love of his life Cody. I was so proud of him and her. We used to go to parties at George and Connie's and play pool and throw horseshoes w his brothers and his dad and uncle. I don't even know what to say I seen Jared the day before he passed away w his brother Sean and almost didn't make it up to see him on his bday. I'm glad God put us in the same place that night so I could joke around w him and tell him I loved him. I'll never forget his kindness to me and my family and how he always watched out fr us w the weather. I'll miss you forever brother I mean that you were a great friend and dad keep a look out for me and I hope your w Cody again love you Zachary beau and family
