

Jason Hurcel Clark

February 13, 1978 - November 17, 2018

Jason Hurcel Clark, 40 year old resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died on November 17, 2018 at his home. Born on February 13, 1978 in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, he was the son of Richard Lige Clark, Sr. and Lynn Dunlap Clark. Jason graduated from Siloam Springs High School in 1996. He was a lifelong resident of the Siloam Springs area and had recently started working at Propak in Siloam Springs. Jason enjoyed bowling and playing pool. He was attending the Salvation Army Fayetteville Corps worship services.

He was preceded in death by his father, Richard Clark, Sr.; his maternal grandparents, Hurcel and Betty Dunlap; and his paternal grandparents, Jack and Patsy Clark.

He is survived by two sons, Colton Hurcel Clark and Landon Ray Clark, both of Siloam Springs; mother, Lynn Clark and Troy Mobbs of Siloam Springs; two brothers, Ricky Clark and wife Nancy, and Daniel Clark, all of Siloam Springs; sister, Breanna Shawver and husband Casey of Colcord, Oklahoma; nephew, Wyatt Clark; niece, Makenna Clark; and numerous cousins, extended family, and friends.

Memorial services will be 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 20, 2018 at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, with Mr. Brian Drummond officiating.

Following the service, the family will be gathering at Community Bowl to share stories and memories of Jason. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Grand Savings Bank Memorial Fund (Acct # 38018706) or to Salvation Army – NWA Area Command.
