

Jason Lee Stroud

July 21, 1978 - December 5, 2022

Jason Lee Stroud, 44, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died December 5, 2022, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. He was born on July 21, 1978, in Springdale, Arkansas, to Vernon “Junior” Stroud and Angela (Overturf) Troke.

Jason’s generosity and great sense of humor were unmatched. He was always there for his friends and family without question. Jason was a huge Arkansas Razorback fan, and he loved playing disc golf with friends. He was also a very talented tie-dye artist. He got to fulfill his dream of Over the Road Trucking, and then eventually had the opportunity to stay local.

Jason is survived by his fiancé, Mekelle Merrell, of the home; father Vernon Stroud, and step-mother JuDene Stroud, of Siloam Springs; mother Angela Troke of Largo, Florida; brother, Jeremy Stroud and wife Megan, of Marion, Iowa; brother, Justin Hodges and wife Annalee, of Bentonville, Arkansas; sister, Jayme Little and husband Brenton, of Bella Vista, Arkansas; sister, Alyssa Mansell, of Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends, that will miss him dearly.

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, December 10, 2022, at 2:00 p.m., at Wasson Chapel, 441 W. Highway 412, Siloam Springs, AR. To sign the online guestbook, please visit: www.wassonfuneralhome.com

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Jason. My thoughts and prayers are with y'all. I remember one funny about when y'all came to visit us at Mayfield and Jason was around 5ish. The kids wanted to watch me milk the goats. Jason was the closes to me and I squirted him with milk. He yelled and said I quote" that goat peed on me. I laugh to thus day remembering that.
Sending hugs and love!
