“ Lydia: My dear friend. So sorry to hear about your mom, my sincere sympathy is with you and your entire family. I have so many fond memories of your mom. I remember the last time I saw her at our 20 year class reunion. She told me that now that I was 40, I could call her Jean. I still couldn't do it, she'll always be Mrs. Brown to me. She was such a lady and so giving and caring. She always made me feel welcome in her home and she loved you so much. I wish I was there to give you a great big hug... I hope you know that I love you and my heart aches for your loss. Take care my friend, she is in a great place now. No hurts, no worries and who knows maybe she'll meet up with my Mom and share some secrets about our childhood together!. Love you. Laura

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Grandma in your lives. Please know that all of you are and have been in my thoughts and prayers throughout her illness. Sarah told me Saturday that Grandma and Grandma June (my mother) can now plant a garden together and fix some of the best food Heaven's ever had. That's going to be some great cooking! Know that she's now out of pain and that, even though we grieve for ourselves because we won't see her again in his life, she's in Heaven and has a better life now than we can imagine. We'll all join her there one day, and she'll have dinner on the table for us!
