“ Karen and family, just learned of Jean's passing. Tried to visit her at nursing home before but was told not to due to covid outbreak. Well now I'm truly sorry I didn't go anyway :- (Sending prayers for all of you but am happy to know she is in Heaven. Will miss you sweet Jean and thank you for all the Monday mornings at your home.

“ Jean was a loving and kind person. She opened her home to our church Connect group. She was always happy to see everyone. She loved the lord with all her heart. When visiting her in the nursing home she would always say “ When I am gone dont't cry for me. I can't wait to to be with Jesus!! How joyous and healthy she is now.

Jean always had a great sense of wit, and she was fast and fun with come backs. A gracious lady, and easy to talk and laugh with. I really enjoyed connect group in her home, and the visits at Quail Ridge. I won't cry Jean, I will do a dance for you with a joyful heart knowing you got home safely. Cheers!

Jean had a heart of gold. She loved her Lord and her family. She was smart, witty, and indeed funny. She trusted Christ for salvation and looked forward to meeting Him, along with her dear Ernie on the other side. Rest well sweet friend. We shall meet again.
