“ Jeanine: I am sorry about your mom. I miss seeing you, and we miss your work in Fayetteville. I went to hear the National Symphony and it was, of course, fantastic. Hope to see you soon. Again, my thoughts are with you. David

“ I'm so sorry to read of your mother's passing. You are in my prayers. I wish I would have known her. My mother-in-law was a secretary for a music publishing house too. That required a special type of meticulous personality, not only the work, but dealing with the music-artist personalities. I suspect that she greatly influenced your own talents in that regard. God grant you Grace during this time of grief.
