“ It was great to see so many classmates at our 30 year class reunion & even though Denese was very ill I think she had a really good time visiting with everyone. Thank you to her close friends who came and stayed with her so that she was able to attend the banquet.
To her family my thoughts and prayers are with you thru this time of sorrow you can focus on the comfort, peace & love of our Savior. God understands how hard it is to be apart from those we love.
"I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." John 14:18
